mitzvahday2001

*O*n April 1, 2001, Muhlenberg students participated in Mitzvah Day sponsored by Muhlenberg College Hillel. In Hebrew, Mitzvah means "good deed", and that is exactly what the day consisted of. The sunny Sunday afternoon was filled with community service projects throughout the Lehigh Valley community. Students worked with children and the elderly in completing artistic projects and activities and outdoor work. Many different Muhlenberg organizations participated in the very successful event.

homecoming

Homecoming this year was exciting and eventful despite the rainy weather. Floats of all shapes and sizes paraded around the Muhlenberg Campus, each creatively interpreting this year's theme, "All Roads Lead Back To Muhlenberg". The Muhlenberg Homecoming Court led the parade and later greeted the many fans on the football field. Fawn Schoenberg and Andy Kent were crowned Queen and King by Lisa Anson and Ruben Ortiz, last year's Homecoming Queen and King.

The football team played against Franklin and Marshall college on the Scotty Wood Stadium. The many fans cheered and hollered in the rain as the team beat the rival 45 to zero. This year's homecoming was definitely one to be remembered.

scienceday 2001

Science Day took place on April 10, 2001 at Cleveland Elementary School and on April 3, 2001 at McKinley Elementary School. Muhlenberg students assisted the younger children through six different, 4 minute, hands-on activities such as dissecting owl pellets, making rockets, slime, silly putty, DNA extraction, and other activities. A recent grant from Lucent Technologies allowed for Muhlenberg to host these events in more urban schools where those funds were not available.

institute of entrepreneurship

The Institute of Entrepreneurship emphasizes the importance of innovative and critical thinking, of careful planning, and of adaptation and flexibility that together represent the philosophy and technique of entrepreneurship. Through a combination of course instruction, hands on internships, small business simulations, and independent research, the Institute strives to equip students with the well founded confidence to assume the appropriate and calculated risks fundamental to meaningful life and career choices.

honorsconvocation

Honors Convocation was held on April 22, 2001 to recognize outstanding performance by students and faculty in academics. This year, Bishop Margaret Gatter Payne received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. Last year, she was elected the first female bishop of the New England Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, at the annual assembly of the New England Synod in Sturbridge, Mass. Bishop Payne is a 1968 summa cum laude graduate of Muhlenberg College.

jeffersonfieldday

Muhlenberg College hosted the 12th annual Jefferson Field Day on May 2, 2001. The day was a great success as Muhlenberg student volunteers helped run activities for over 700 Jefferson Elementary students. The day consisted of relay races, obstacle courses, and team sports. Over 200 Muhlenberg students managed all activities and aspects of the day. The field day is the culmination of yearlong events sponsored by the Muhlenberg-Jefferson Partnership.

President Arthur R. Taylor

Since becoming President of Muhlenberg College in 1992, President Taylor has led Muhlenberg College to new heights and achievements. He has been named as one of only 50 college and university presidents recognized for outstanding leadership in the field of student character and development in the "The Templeton Guide." With enrollment at an all time high, the success of Muhlenberg College must be related to the excellent leadership of Arthur Taylor and his wife, Kathryn.

The Accounting, Business and Economics curriculum prepares students for graduate school or a variety of careers in public accounting, international economics, and human resources administration. The business program is especially appropriate for liberal arts students who want to understand more fully the international society in which we live.

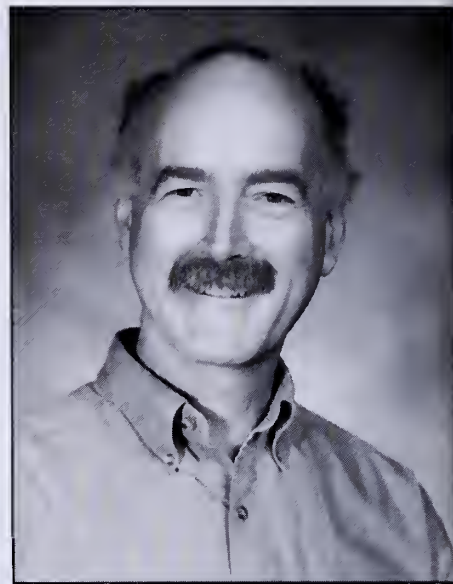

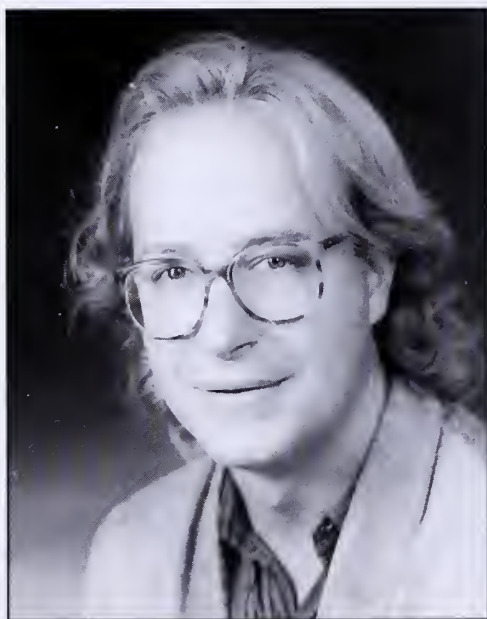

Raymond Barnes
Professor of Art

Dr. Jadviga da Costa Nunes
Head

Joseph Elliott
Professor of Art

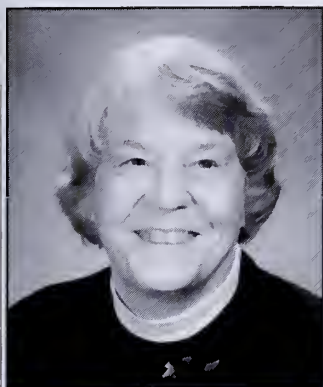

Scott Sherk
Associate Professor of Art

The Art Department offers a strong curriculum in art history and studio arts. The Curriculum emphasizes the mastery of technical skills, aesthetics, and art history in conjunction with a strong tradition of the liberal arts. It aims to educate students in the foundation of art, and to stress the importance of critical thinking, intellectual discipline, and understanding of the visual arts in the broad cultural historical and social contexts.

Dr. Marion Smith
Assistant Professor of Chemistry

The chemistry department has been a major factor contributing to the College's record of excellence in the natural sciences. Students benefit from a chemistry faculty that is highly qualified, dedicated to providing quality undergraduate classroom and laboratory instruction. The faculty's concern for the students and for their mastery of an increasing complex set of principles and skills is reflected, at least in part by the the success of the department's graduates. Students' preparation for careers in medicine, research, industrial work and teaching has served to further extend and enhance that reputation.

Dr. Sue Curry Jansen
Professor of Communications

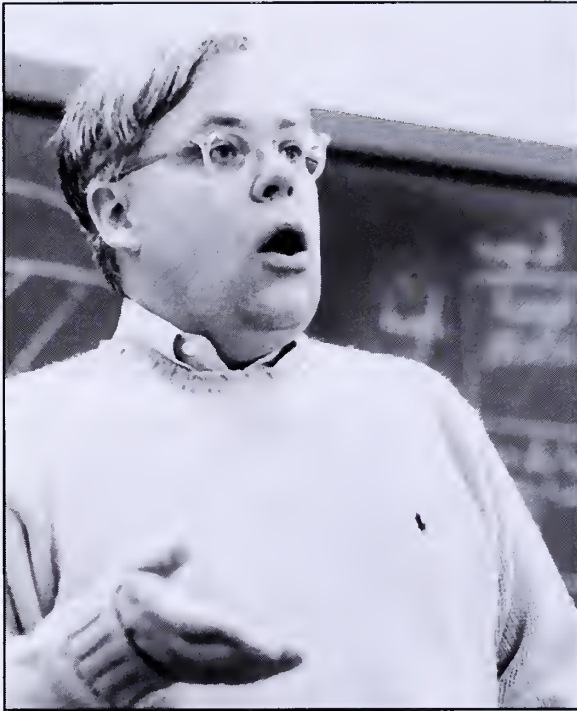

John Sullivan
Assistant Professor of Communications

The department of communication offers courses that address both the theory and practice of communication. This includes writing, radio, video, multimedia production, and the critical analysis of media images. A wide range of courses are offered to enable students to develop both an understanding of the field and the basic research and production skills that prepare them for entry level positions in communication related professions.

Dr. Michael Carbone
Head of Education

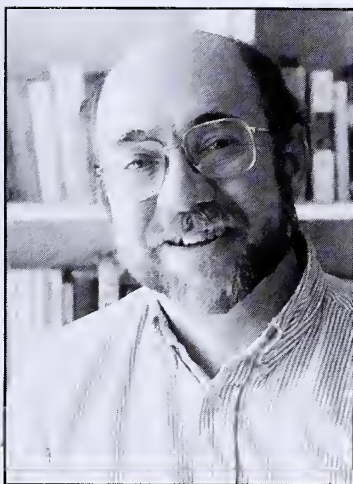

The Education Department offers certification programs in elementary and secondary teaching. Students receiving their secondary school teaching certification usually form a concentration in biology, English, French, Mathematics, Spanish or History. Typical majors in the elementary education program include Psychology, English, mathematics, sociology and music. The requirements are demanding, however faculty advisors provide the necessary individual support or counsel. As a result, Muhlenberg has a long established reputation for graduating teacher-certified students who are very well respected.

Dr. William Tighe
Associate Professor of History

Dr. Daniel Wilson
Head

The History Department offers courses which intend to contribute to the liberal education of students regardless of their major. Courses are designed to prepare students for law school, government services, graduate work in social sciences and humanities. The department attempts to implant in students a sense of history and indicate the many perspectives one can have on its legacy.

The College has a long tradition in teaching foreign language and literatures. The strength of the department undoubtedly accounts for the fact that there are generally 60 to 80 majors and minors in French, German, Russian and Spanish combined. In this department, students can satisfy their degree requirements and also get the preparation they might need for graduate school or careers in such areas as communication, foreign trade, business, banking, and many more.

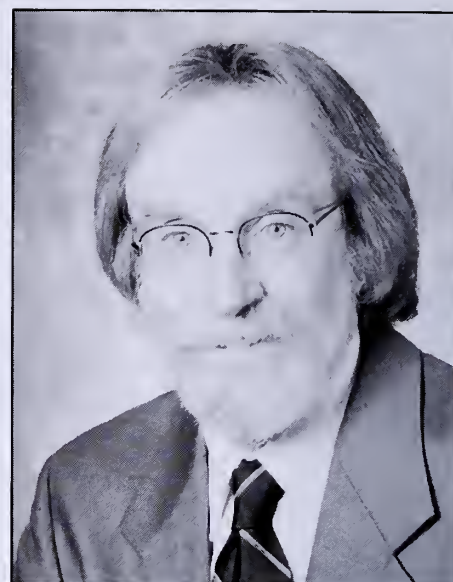

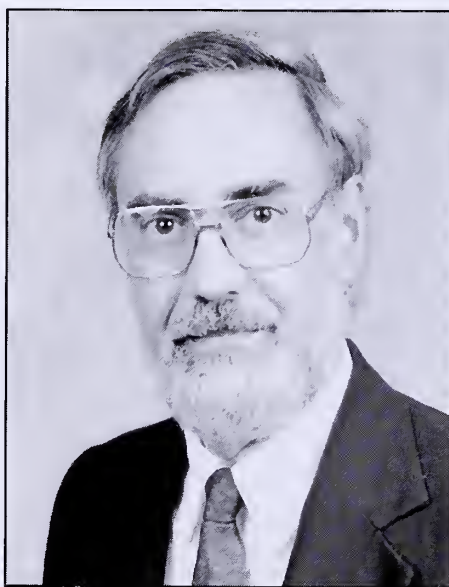

Dr. George Benjamin
Head

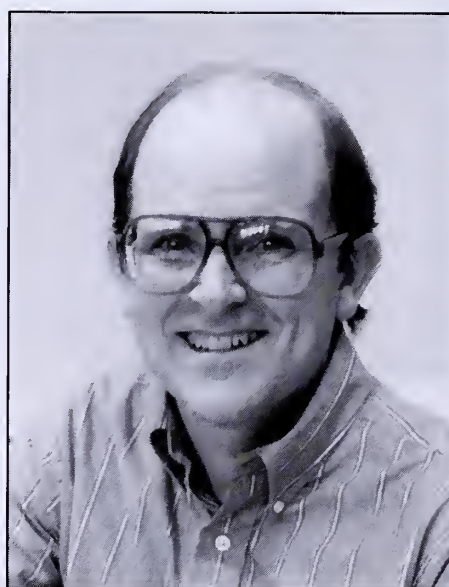

Dr. Penelope Dunham
Associate Professor

Dr. William Dunham
Professor

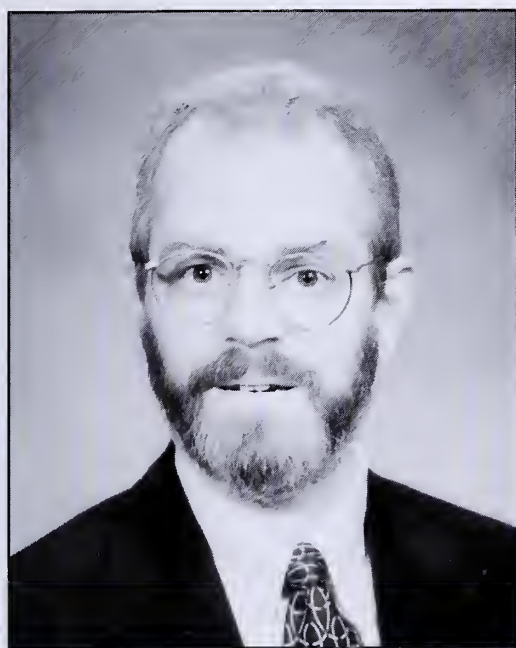

Dr. John Meyer
Professor

Dr. David Nelson

The Mathematical Sciences Department offers majors and minors in mathematics, computer science, and information science. There are several tracks including preparation for graduate school in mathematical sciences, applied mathematics for employment upon graduation, and courses leading to secondary and elementary certification for teaching mathematics. The computer and information sciences program prepares students for graduate work and various careers.

Dr. Theodore Conner
Assistant Professor of Music

Dr. Diane Follet
Assistant Professor of Music

Dr. Douglas Ovens
Head

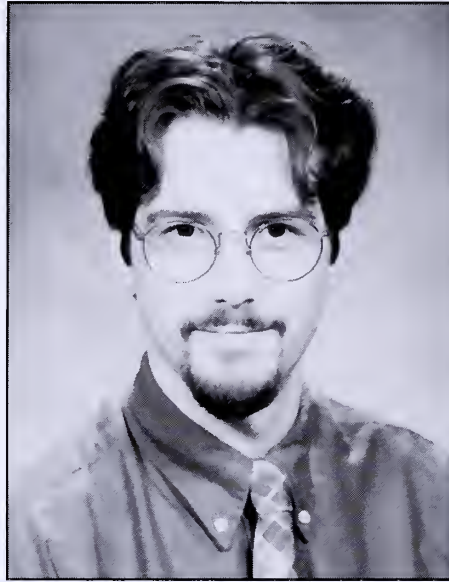

Jeremy Slavin
Director of College Choir/ Lecturer

The Music Department offers both major and minor programs, and it actively serves the musical interests of the entire college community. The major itself places equal emphasis on performance, music theory and music history. Some students major in music in preparation for such fields as teaching, graduate work, church music, music therapy, and orchestra management.

Dr. Patrice DiQuinzio
Associate Professor

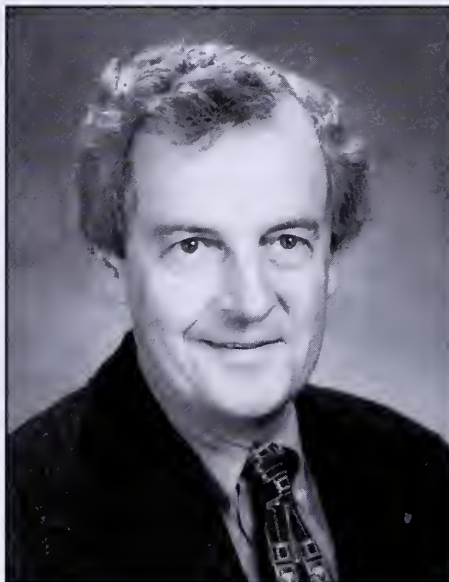

Dr. Lawrence Hass
Associate Professor

Dr. Marjorie Hass
Associate Professor

Dr. Theodore Schick
Head

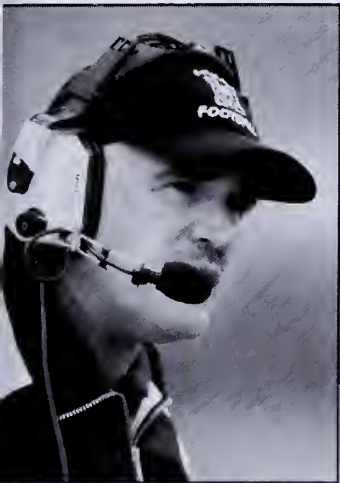

Dr. Ludwig Schlecht
Professor & College Marshal

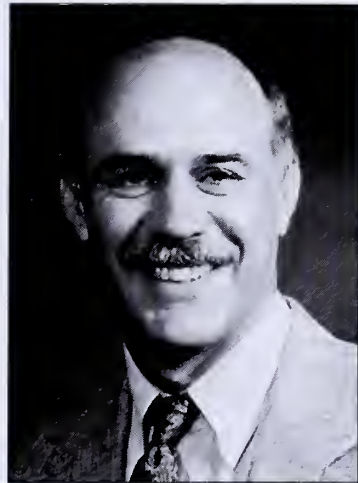

Dr. Christine Sistare
Associate Professor

The Philosophy Department offers courses in various categories: logic, contemporary issues, history of philosophy, systematic areas and individual learning experiences. Philosophy attempts to arrive at a comprehensive and coherent view of the world by critically examining our most basic belief about nature, reality, knowledge, persons, and values. Students develop skills in clarifying concepts, analyzing arguments, and assessing positions.

The Physical Education Department offers courses ranging from golf to step aerobics and a mandatory healthy lifestyles course. As well as teaching classes, the staff tries to push students to focus on wellness and thus offers an abundance of information on the subject.

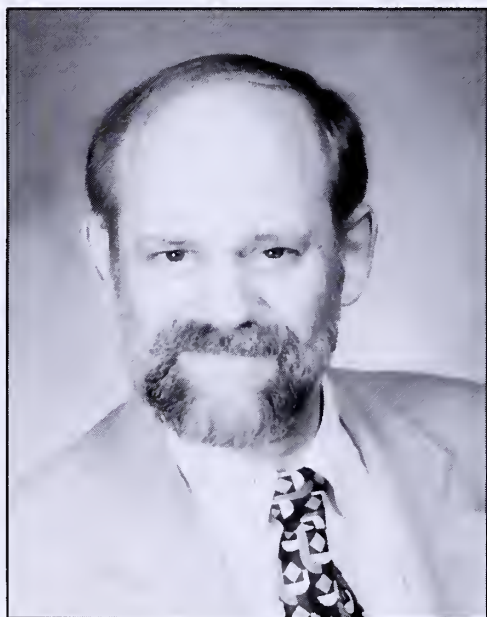

Dr. Jane Flood
Associate Professor

Dr. Russel P. Kauffman
Assistant Professor

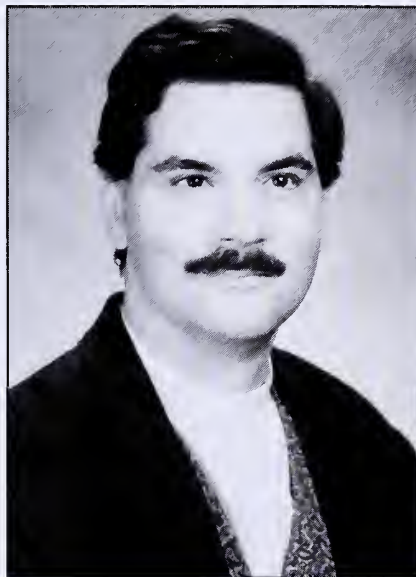

Dr. Robert Milligan
Head

The study of Physics is useful for a lifetime of inevitable career changes. Physics requires skills of deductive and intuitive reasoning that can be successfully applied in many fields. Many Muhlenberg graduates have become physicists, successful engineers, bankers, physicians, computer specialists and college professors. The department's faculty members are dedicated to undergraduate teaching.

Dr. Christopher Borick
Associate Professor

Dr. Giacomo Gambino
Associate Professor

Dr. Christopher Herrick
Associate Professor

Honorable Paul McHale
Part Time Lecturer

Dr. Alton Slane
Head

The Political Science department has vast capabilities in which it is large enough to have many concentrations but still able to supply the Muhlenberg Family atmosphere. This year's political science majors are going to attend some of the top Law Schools in the country.

Dr. Linda Bips
Assistant Professor

Dr. Kathleen Harring
Head

Dr. Jeffrey Rudski
Associate Professor

Dr. Vimla Swani Sinha
Professor

Dr. Laura Snodgrass
Associate Professor

Dr. Alan Tjeltveit
Associate Professor

The Psychology department draws approximately 65 new students every year into the major, making it one of the most popular on campus. The program is designed to provide a solid understanding of the scientific discipline of psychology with an emphasis on experimental methodology and research. The psychology major provides a strong liberal arts foundation for students interested in the mental health field, medicine, law marketing research and teaching.

Dr. Hemchand Gossai
Associate Professor

Dr. Alan Mittleman
Head

Thomas Pearson
Lecturer

Dr. Susan Schwartz
Associate Professor

The Religion Department is constructed of professors from a variety of backgrounds along with an expanded teaching staff from faculty exchange. A number of religion majors go on to teach, usually after graduate work, while others enter seminary. Other options include, but are not limited to, law journalism, business, human services, and diplomatic services. Religion majors tend to double major in psychology, history, foreign language, sociology or political science.

Dr. William Abruzzi Head, Associate Professor

J. Christopher Kovats-Bernat
Visiting Lecturer

The Department of Sociology & Anthropology offers various majors and courses to structure programs oriented toward a variety of professional careers. Graduates have pursued careers in law, teaching, the ministry, city planning, and world affairs.

Constance Campbell
Costume Designer & Part-time Lecturer

Marilyn Roberts
Director of Development & Marketing

Francine Roussel
Assistant Professor

The academic programs in both theatre and dance are designed to provide majors with a solid background in history, theory and literature of performance. Faculty and staff have developed a multi-faceted approach to education which combines an exciting creative experience with rigorous professional standards. Students are challenged as artists in the studio and in the classroom, working closely with distinguished faculty and nationally recognized guest artists to achieve conceptual understanding and practical working knowledge of the arts and the profession.

Hillel is the foundation of the campus Jewish community. The Hillel network brings to the college world all the richness and diversity of Judaism and Jewishness. Its historical commitment to a pluralistic community encourages intellectual challenge and growth. Hillel is an extremely active and well-known organization on Muhlenberg's campus. Hillel offers a host of different activities including Sunday bagel brunches, Shabbat dinners and services, and social events such as ice-skating, Purim Party, Shabbat Around the World dinner, and Havdalah and a movie.

The student representatives of the Cardinal Key Society strive to be leaders and companions to other students, alumni and the Muhlenberg community. Members of the Cardinal Key Society donate their time and efforts in order to promote the philanthropic principles of service and giving and improve the quality of life for all members of the Muhlenberg Family. The goals and objectives of the Cardinal Key Society are to serve the Office of Alumni Relations, inform alumni of events and changes that take place on campus, and to develop current students as future dedicated alumni.

Beginning service in 1999, the on campus emergency medical services is a student run and operated organization. The medically trained students on campus provide first responder medical care to any person in need during the academic year. Whether it is a minor medical problem, or a life threatening emergency, the trained students respond to the scene and provide basic life support to any person in need. Stocked with a vast amount of medical supplies, the service's vehicle responds to emergencies and the members provide standby medical services during major events.

The Muhlenberg Dance Association is committed to promoting dance excellence and appreciation in the Muhlenberg Community. Under the supervision of our moderator, Professor Dearborn, we have several student choreographed productions throughout the year, as well as one main stage faculty and guest artist choreographed concert. There are also technical and costuming opportunities available for the dancers. The dancers participate in the American College Dance Festival each year to have certain dance pieces adjudicated by professionals and to take classes. In addition, there are several community service opportunities for the dancers throughout the year. Finally, the club holds bake-sales and t-shirt sales throughout the year.

The year 2001 was fabulous for the Muhlenberg Dynamics! The Dynamics are Muhlenberg's only COED a cappella group. Comprised of 16 members, the group rehearses six hours weekly and performs at numerous events. On top of various gigs off campus, the Dynamics performed Homecoming Weekend, Family Weekend, Grandparent's Day, and at graduation. Some of the highlights of the year included singing in front of the Christmas Tree at Rockefeller Plaza, hosting the third annual "SupercallowanarchisticacappellaMUHLFEST," participating in Mitzvah Day, and of course the End-of-the-Year concert which took place May 6 in the Baker Center for the Arts. The Dynamics would like to wish their senior members the best of luck in the future!

campuschristianfellowship

The Campus Christian Fellowship is an independent student-led group composed of students from a wide variety of churches and backgrounds. They are united and committed to proclaiming and serving Jesus Christ on Muhlenberg's campus. Throughout the year the group sponsors several student led weekly Bible studies and prayer meetings, as well as the weekly Friday Night Fellowship meetings. Service and social activities are held throughout the year. They are a caring and supportive group based on growing together spiritually and sharing that with others.

habitatforhumanity

Habitat for Humanity is an international organization located in 67 countries around the world. Habitat builds houses using volunteer labor and donated funds. It works with those people who need housing and helps them to start to build their own home. Each person who owns a Habitat house is required to have a job and to give a set number of "sweat equity" hours during which they help to build their home. Habitat is a fabulous program because it allows those who could not normally afford a house to buy one while also making them earn the house with hard work.

The Environmental Action Team had a very successful 2000-01 year in spreading environmental awareness and cultivating ecological literacy. EnAcT sponsored several roundtable discussions on a vast array of environmentally hot topics. As the outlet for students to pursue activities that contribute in bettering the ecological well being of the campus, local, and global communities, EnAcT embarked upon several service projects in cooperation with the Wildlands Conservancy as well as the Graver Arboretum, and also held an integral role in the Adopt-A-Block cleanup effort on Mitzvah Day.

The International Students Association co-sponsored Muhlenberg College's first annual Nonviolence Day Rally in celebration of Mahatma Gandhi's birthday as well as the first annual Asian Cultural Festival. I.S.A. continued with its annual tradition of holding the "Night of Cultural Diversity," in which 'Berg students showed off their many musical, lyrical, and dance talents. I.S.A. sponsored pizza and bowling parties which provided international students and the 'Berg community a time to mingle and have fun. In April, I.S.A. co-sponsored a Student Band Benefit Concert in which all proceeds will go as relief aid to the earthquake victims in India.

Students Have A Real Effect on their communities, on the people around them, and what goes on in the world. Members of this club are all interested in lending a helping hand, and seeing their actions make a difference. s.h.a.r.e. was founded just a couple years ago, and it has developed into a success. We concentrate on helping our local community with activities like regular food drives and clothing drives, helping out at Day-break soup kitchen or the Phoebe Home, and spending time with children in local shelters. In the past we have worked on projects with the Wildlands Conservancy, and we plan to do this again in the future. We also run frequent fundraisers throughout the year either to raise money for our club or for a specific organization. This year s.h.a.r.e. helped out with an senior citizens' prom that was put together by Aliza Vitberg, s.h.a.r.e.'s co-president. We have many project ideas, but we are always open to more. What we end up doing is up to our members!

communicationsclub

The Communications Club 2000-2001 was one of the largest and most active clubs on the Muhlenberg College campus. With 5 executive officers and two advisors and members ranging from all class years, the Communications Club had a very successful and dynamic school year. Various activities included the showing of the movie, "Network," and a visit to WZZO, a local radio station that illustrated various facets of radio production. We also held a Morning Call workshop, when an editor from the paper visited the Club and described how a paper is run; she also showed a video and distributed information to students. One of the most exciting and successful events was a trip to New York City, where we got to watch a live taping of Regis Live. We also visited NBC Studios and took a tour of the Saturday Night Live, Rosie O'Donnell and Conan O'Brien studios. We are also holding a internship session toward the end of the school year, where Communications majors will speak to other students about their internship and job experiences.

Comunidad Latina is a student organization that serves to educate the Muhlenberg campus about the Hispanic heritage and give those interested an opportunity to experience it. We promote cultural understanding and awareness. We also enhance the Latino students' knowledge and self-pride of their heritage and culture. We have achieved these goals in the following ways: Dance parties where the Latin music is played; "Dinner and a Movie Night," where we eat Latin food while we watch movies that deal with Hispanic issues or the Latin culture; visits to "El Museo del Barrio;" our Latin Fest where we introduced the Latin culture to the campus through food and music. In the fall of 2000, Comunidad Latina sponsored a speaker, Sandra Guzman, who spoke about Latino leadership in the new millennium. Comunidad Latina also spent a large portion of the semester organizing the Progressive Dinner, held on November 11, 2000. It was a great success because of the participation of the various cultural organizations on campus.

muhlenberg

Muhlenberg College's Greek life continues to be a significant part of many students' experience at this college. Through community service, the Greek organizations work hard to give back to the Allentown community. Registered parties, hosted by the fraternities, provide options for students to "get out" on the weekends. Pledging fosters the growth of friendships that are sure to last a lifetime. After graduation, many people will remember and treasure their memories of Greek life.

panhelleniccouncil

Panhellenic Council is composed of delegates from all four of the sororities on Muhlenberg's campus who work together for Greek unity. They are responsible for organizing and running the RUSH program in the fall. They organize the Pinebrook party each December, which provides foster children with holiday gifts bought by Muhlenberg students and faculty. Panhel also plans and runs the women's end of Greek Week—this year's activities include a community service event which will help to serve a soup kitchen, Luthercrest Senior Home, the Boys and Girls Club, and Community Bikeworks.

Executive Board: Carmel Gettings- President, Julie Goldberg- Vice President, Kate Deacon- Treasurer, Darien DeVries- Secretary, Delegates: Erica Gibson, Melissa Kubit, Emily Kaplan, Carla Caggiano, Stephanie Jenkins, Tara Rolandelli, Lily Basile, Tracy Salzman

interfraternitycouncil

This year the Interfraternity Council has organized a "Dinner and a Movie Escort Auction" to benefit Turning Point. They also sponsored an alcohol awareness speaker and a domestic violence awareness speaker. The Council has organized a "Greeks Make A Difference Day" and a very successful Greek Week! They achieved results through countless community service activities. The Interfraternity Council brought former heavyweight boxing champion, Larry Holmes, to Muhlenberg College as a motivational speaker.

From your first Ref's whistle, whether wearing Cohansey League Blue or Gold, Hopefully Blue and White, CRS Orange and Brown, or Muhlenberg Cardinal and Grey, you have always given 100%! You have played and excelled in many sports, though field hockey captured your heart from the moment you picked up a stick, which seems like yesterday, but it's been 12 years!!! We have enjoyed watching you use your "gift" on the hockey field, especially your RED Corner for the Mules! You tackle FIELD HOCKEY and LIFE with the same dedication "smart, heart, team" and you will never give up. These beliefs have served you well in the classroom, on the field, and will continue to serve you well in life.

Life is long — enjoy it!!
Love Mom Dad and Angie

Dear Josh,

Your smile brightens our days,
Your heart warms the world.

Your devotion to friends

Congratulations! We are all very proud of all your achievements; but most of all the person you have become.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

This picture represents your first day of kindergarten, 17 years ago. You were waving good-bye, setting in motion a journey that has brought you to this moment in time. Through the years, you have worked hard, and met with so much success. As you look ahead to the future you have made for yourself, remember we are always here for you. We are bursting with pride, not only because of your academic accomplishments, but because of the person you have become.

Continue to always put forth your best effort and you'll never have to second guess what you could have been...

Love Always,

*As you continue to go through life;
Remember to dream what you want to dream;
Go where you want to go; Be what you want to be; Because you only have one life and one chance To do all the things you want to do.*

Congratulations!

Eric-

Not afraid to say it: We are so very proud of you and your accomplishments.

You have met the daunting challenges in your young life with courage and resilience... and have emerged as a wonderful young man.

All of us send our love, our prayers (the Rev is on board) and our excitement about your future.

Love,
Dad, Jane, and Jeff

Dear Garret,

On November 9, 1979, when you entered the world with that black eye we knew you were a fighter, a warrior with an exceptional future. Not for a day, a minute, a second, have we ever been disappointed. We are so very proud of you for the person you have become; a loving caring, considerate, responsible, resourceful son and brother. Use the gift of knowledge that you have been given wisely for knowledge is power. Always strive for excellence, exceed yourself, speak the truth, practice fidelity and respect your mother and father. These principles will help you master yourself, make you strong, give you hope and put you on the path to greatness. This is the foundation you will use to be successful in all your business and personal relationships. Don't ever forget where your roots are, or where your home is (click, click- there's no place like home).

All our love.
Mom, Dad, Chad

Dear Michael:

It seems like only yesterday that you were getting ready to embark upon a new chapter in your life, college.

What a wonderful 4 years you've had a Muhlenberg. You should be very proud of your many accomplishments.

You are a very special person. Cherish your memories and friendships. Always follow your heart and happiness and success will be yours. You deserve it.

Congratulations!
With all our love,
Mom, Dad & Amy

It's the friends that you can call at 4:00 am that matter.

In life's confusing moments, don't forget that we have each other. We are only a phone call away. Friendships are treasures of the heart, and hopefully ours will last a life time.
 We wish you luck, confidence, and a spirit of adventure in fulfilling your dreams.

Love,
 Your Parents

Beautiful on the inside and the outside Enthusiastic, exciting, and energetic Terrific, tender, and thoughtful Huggable, honest, and hardworking

All these qualities make up the person we love and admire so much!

Go get them, Class of 2001!

Love always,
 Mom and Craig

 Congratulations! We are so proud of all you have accomplished. You've shown that thru adversity you still can come out on top. You will be the best in all you do in the future as you have in the past.
 We love you and will always be here for you.
 Good luck in your future.

Yesterday is history,
Tomorrow is a mystery,
Today is a gift,
That's why it is called the present.

Rob- How fast these few years have passed. Why are some better and quicker than others? You worked so hard, with determination and strength to reach this point in your life- done the "Weiss" way. I couldn't be any prouder of you. I know graduation is just the beginning of a loving and successful life. "Show those teeth." and see the smiles from above and you will always have our love.

Love ya bunches
